Traditional Thai Cookery

A short course to learn the basics of traditional Thai cuisine

Thursdays, 7.00 - 9.00 pm
Commencing 23rd February 2012
£45 for 5 weeks

with Sirikul Sirisang

No previous knowledge of Thai cookery is required and everyone is welcome.

This course is for anyone who wishes to gain a basic knowledge of traditional Thai cookery from preparation to use of fresh vegetables, herbs and spices. The recipes range from simple and new ideas to the favourite dishes.

Dishes include:

- Thai green curry
- Pad Thai noodles
- Duck curry

All ingredients for the first session are provided by the tutor and are not included in the cost of the course. Payment for these will be made to the tutor on the day. Students will be told what ingredients to bring for subsequent weeks.

Students are required to bring an apron, a clean tea towel, a small sharp kitchen knife and between 3 and 5 food containers to take home completed dishes.

How to enrol on this course:

Enrolment forms can be downloaded from our website: www.bottishamvc.org/commed and returned to the Community Office with your course fee. Alternatively, please ring or email the Community Office. A place will be reserved for you once your completed enrolment form and payment have been received. Cheques should be made payable to Bottisham Village College. Credit and Debit card details can be given on the enrolment form. Concessionary fees are available if you are in receipt of a Means Tested Benefit (JSA and ESA only).

Unless you are informed that the course is full or cancelled, you should attend the first session. Refunds will only be given if the course is cancelled or if you withdraw due to ill health; in this case evidence is required. If a class is cancelled due to circumstances beyond our control, extra classes will be added at the end of the course. Please note that the office will not be manned during the school holidays.
